

As we went into the final race weekend, hopes were up. We did not come out with the desired result, but it was a hell of a job by Antti and the Enigma/LMS team regardless!

Going into the final weekend at Brands Hatch GP, Antti had his options all the way up to #3 in the series. Granted, both Josh Hill and Tio Ellinas had shown some fantastic racing at Donington, but all bets were off for the finale. Unfortunately the weekend ended with both Tio and Josh keeping their positions, and thus we have the provisional results for 2010 as follows:

#1 Scott Pye

#2 Scott Malvern

#3 Dan Cammish

#4 Tio Ellinas

#5 Josh Hill

#6 Antti Buri

The top 6 were clearly a breed apart, and overall all drivers in this group got their share of the lights and fame during the season. Congrats to all, and kudos to Antti and the team for a great job!
